Dear Al:

3 June 1989

I was very happy to receive the "The Lounsbury Tree" and opened it with much anticipation. I was not disappointed!

But I was saddened to read of your great loss of your wife Dorothy. I know that may of the Lounsbury/Louenbury Descendants who have not actually met you are sending our condolences. We also thank you for continuing with our Family Newsletter, "The Lounsbury Tree".

To get back to my first sentence, The Lounsbury Genealogy sent in by Richard L. Horton has given me the parents of Sarah Close, wife of Isaac Lounsbury, 1703-1773. My line goes Richard1, John2, Isaac3, John4, Isaac5, John6, Franklin7, Isaac8, Lounsbury, who married Alfred9 Ingalls. I have not found this relationship in the Lounsbury Tree but indications lean toward this assumption and I am hoping that someone out there can help me prove this relationship for certain.

According to Richard Horton, Sarah Close was the daughter of Thomas and Hannah (Knapp) Close. This is very interesting to me because Alfred Ingalls who married Isaac Lounsbury in 1862 was the grandson of Anna Rundall and great-grandson of Isaac. If I am trying to prove back to William Rundall and his wife Abigail Tyler, several of William's and Abigail's children married into the Knapp family and two married into the Close family. In fact Isaac7 Rundall married Hannah Close, daughter of Thomas Close and Hannah Knapp, Sarah and Sarah Close apparently were sisters.

May you know why I am so happy with your May/June Newsletter. Perhaps I will look more closely into the Rundall and Close Families I might find a clue to solve my Rundall mystery.

May the light of the Advent candles and the love of the Christmas season enrich our lives through 1990.

Dear Lounsbury Relatives,

So that you do not feel excluded, you may fill in the missing letters above to match your spelling. As I work on this news letter, my heart and mind are overflowing with gratitude to all who sent notes and letters of condolence following Dorothy's death nearly a year ago. Also, many thanks for all the materials sent for The Tree. There is more that I can possibly include in this issue. We will hold it for the next issue, hopefully in May/June 1990.

Letters from Bea Clark, 2/14 and 8/8/89, 45 Cleverdale Rd, Rochester, NY 14616 remind me to remind those who send queries to give full names including nicknames. Her files are in alphabetical order by first name for men. Therefore, she stresses the importance of middle names also. She states, "I have found so many are known by the middle name, especially in a family where each generation carries a tradition of naming sons the same as the father/grandfather." Bea would like anyone to send census material also. Bea further states that the genealogist needs as much information as possible when dealing with names. She is grateful to Ted Baldwin for sending photocopies of all that he finds. (We thank you, Bea for this information.)

Line as well as learning more about Isaac6 Lounsbury.

I wish I could get back to the Lounsbury reunion in Westarion, N.Y. Both the Ingalls and Rundall families settled there in the 1700's and John Lounsbury settled in next door Schonberg Co. In the book of Schonberg Co. New York Genealogical Records, by Charlotte Taylor Luchan, Feb 1952, I found the following:

John Lounsbury b. Mar 22, 1731, died Dec 20, 1811 (Sinnott 2nd ed. of the Line Chart)

Van Courtlandt married Sarah b. Oct 22, 1729, died Aug 26, 1819

Ch. Isaac b. 21 Dec 1757

Mary married Bachus

Hannah married Capot

Lounsbury family has reunion

WESTERLO — The eighth annual Lounsbury family reunion was July 29 at Westerlo Town Park. Awards were given for the youngest member present, Bobby Patrick of Westerlo, 10 days; and oldest, Paul Jennings Lounsbury of Peekskill. Jim Lounsbury of Silver Springs, Md., who works for United Press International in Washington, D.C., was guest speaker.

The reunion is the last Saturday in July. To get the family newsletter: Albert Lounsbury, 212 Nelson Ave., Saratoga Springs. For reunion information: Barbara Lounsbury, 2278 Lake Road, Berne, N.Y. 12023.

The Lounsbys at the Westerlo, NY reunion, July 29, 1989. Many can be identified by comparing this picture with the ones in the two previous issues of The Tree. Top photos are of Jim Lounsbury, the speaker. The center one is when he was an anchorman on TV news; the other is when he was speaking at the reunion. Jim spoke about his experiences as a news reporter and journalist with UPI, and he also played tapes of a UPI promotion and some radio bloopers. He told about his background, born and raised on an Iowa farm. After college, he left there and came east to pursue his career in broadcasting. His talk was very interesting. Later, Jim sent a letter and some other papers. His family line appears on page 4. Other papers which I hope can be included in future issues are: "The Family of Richard" done in Iowa a while back; Plains Talk, with a story about Col. Clement Lounsbury, and a Tribune Extra, Bismarck, Dakota Territory, July 6, 1876, telling about the battle with the Sioux Indians on the Little Big Horn River when General G.A. Custer was killed — very interesting but gruesome reading.
FAMILY ANCESTRIES

This family line was sent by Mrs. Ann G. Peavey, 31 Peachtree Lane, Hendersonville, NC 28739. In a letter accompanying it, she writes, "I am always hoping that someone will come up with the name Lucretia or Latitia, wife of Michael Lounsbery. Has noone else ever written in on this question?... As you can see, Michael Lounsbery Carmen and Mary Mosher were first cousins. This being so, the lack of her family (Latitia's) leaves two stretches of blanks across my chart which I would like to fill. I shall write to Mrs. Sara DeLong in Trumansburg first to see if she knows anything about my family. This is the reason for a family newsletter after all... I have a DAR friend in Brevard, next town, Margaret Florance, who is a Lounsbery, and gave me some information and references. She told me about The Lounsbury Tree." (Editor's note: I hope someone can contact Ann Peavey with some helpful information or questions.)

WHAT IS YOUR FAMILY LINE? ARE YOU WORKING ON IT? PLEASE SEND IT IN FOR THE TREE.

Dear Mr. Lounsbery,

I publish my complete family tree on 4/1/89, and it contains more material from my mother's line which was the subject of my interest to you. However, I have received a few drafts, complete with pictures, of it and would be interested in your attention to the project. I have arranged the pages of being solicited.

I understand your circumstances, but my husband has sent me a check for $100 to pay for your subscription letter. I hope you will enjoy it.

Sincerely,

Lounsbery led Town of Tioga to new firefighting equipment

By KAREN LANGE
Staff Writer

Lewis J. Lounsbery was a man committed to Tioga Center and the Town of Tioga, friends said Monday.

Mr. Lounsbery, 86, died Sunday at his home on Allyn Road in Tioga Center.

He was a Tioga County firefighter for 40 years and chaired the board of fire commissioners for the Town of Tioga until eight days before his death.

“Day or night, he was always available, always willing to help anybody,” said Burt Smith, Tioga Center fire chief from 1954 to 1981.

“It was the natural instinct he had to serve his community,” said James R. Houseknecht, fire commissioner.

In 1949, Mr. Lounsbery was one of about 30 charter members of the Tioga Center Fire Department, said Smith, another charter member. At that time, the department had just one truck and rented a building. Now, the department has six trucks, two ambulances and its own station.

“It’s through his guidance that we’ve kept up with new innovations in equipment,” Houseknecht said.

In 1984, during Mr. Lounsbery’s term as chairman of the commissioners, the fire district bought a new ambulance to replace one purchased in 1972. The district also bought a new firetruck that allowed firefighters to spray double the volume of water than with the next-best truck and to pump a third more water per minute, Houseknecht said.

Mr. Lounsbery was born May 4, 1903, in the hamlet the sons of John Lewis and Mary Lounsbery. He was a high school superintendent for the town of Tioga.

Mr. Lounsbery is survived by a daughter, Esther Guimond of Tioga Center; three sons, Sheldon; Lewis; and John H. Lounsbery of Smithboro; 14 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

Services were Tuesday morning at Richards Funeral Home in Owego. The Rev. Penny Rahm of the Tioga Center United Methodist Church, where Mr. Lounsbery was a member, led the service. Mr. Lounsbery was to be buried in Tioga Center Cemetery.

Bottom—A new reunion this year. The third and fourth generations of Daniel Webster and Carrie Applebee Lounsbury organized a reunion which was held at Mongaup Pond Campsite near DeBruce, N.Y. on August 5. It may become an annual event. Some of the older generation attended. No attempt to identify this small picture.
The identification, left to right, standing is Lura Baldwin (Ted's mother), Jesse Lounsbery, Arline Lounsbery, their parents and Ted's grandparents. Ted and Louise were at the Westerlo '89 reunion. Other interesting information sent by Ted: A menu from the Lounsberry Truck Stop on Route 17 (Southern Expressway), between Nichols and Owego, N.Y. Apparently there is no connection between the owners of the restaurant and the Lounsberry family. It is named that because it is near the village of Lounsberry. A "Lounsberry Cutlet Sandwich" (Fork cutlet hand battered and deep fried to a golden brown) is listed on the menu for $4.25. Sounds delicious. Plan to stop sometime if you are in that area west of Binghamton, N.Y. Ted also mentioned a Lounsberry Drive just south of Fulton, N.Y. in Oswego County, in development. It was named by Isaac Lounsberry Wilcox and he changed the name to berry, thinking it would be easier for people to spell. There are street names with English heritage evident: Winemere and Coventry Lane. Judith Wilcox Casey had sent a letter to Ted explaining the naming of the drive. This tells us a little bit about how the L name has been spelled differently.

Ted has done quite a bit on his family history and likes to share information. He can be contacted at: Mr. Theodore Baldwin, RD 1, Hannibal, NY 13074.

Dear Albert,

Thank you for the “Tree”. It is very helpful and interesting. (And lots of work)

I began doing the Waykoop-Founaby home. I spent a few minutes with Sarah Founaby about 5 years ago. It is SOME home. Probably does need lots of attention.

“Hatore Preservation” has listed the house and pictured it. Advertised at $50,000.

Let me know what. Maybe museum.

After all of Washington slept thus,

There must be 800,000 Founaby’s in USA. We could hold our annual reunion there! Maybe make it a B&B! Think what we could make for ourselves?!

In best esteem, advertised in June 1989 “Preservation News”.

Sincerely & Seriously

Dear Albert,

We really enjoy getting the newsletter “The Founaby News.” The reunion at the tree. My son is the same name as the “Founaby” reunion. “Founaby” descendants in this area. I’m in the branch of Lizzie Clark in our branch.

If at all possible, we are thinking of coming to your reunion this year. I would like to hear from Founaby of future updates for the reunion. Also would love to get information from Lizzie Clark.

Our house can be seen in Lawrence and lost you had a family reunion on just a few dollars away. So far we don’t know how the connection is to be found in any history other than two good grandparents came from NY.

There have been several started this past year and I try to get the dates and information to both.

I am going to July! My husband brother is named Albert. Would you believe this there is another Charles on the history.

Sincerely

Carroll Founaby

Dear Ms. Lounsbury;

"Helderberg Lounsburys" and "Lounsbury, Lounsberry, Lounsberry" are very interesting. These publications have proved to be quite valuable to me and others searching for their ancestors. The information contained in them confirms what was already known about my line. I wish to commend you on your research and publication.

Recently I have been searching for documentary proof to connect my great-great-grandfather John to Nathan (4), Nathan (3), Henry (2), and Richard (1). I feel that there is a preponderance of evidence to that conclusion. Nathan (4) married Patience Davis in Rehoboth, MA, John (5) was born there according to a family bible. Nathan (4) moved toWaukegan, IL, John lived there and married Deborah Skinner there in 1806.

Enclosed are family sheets on my line. Please note that my John is listed on page 53 of "Lounsberry, Lounsberry, Lounsberry." I would like to suggest that the Nathan on the bottom of page 53 was John's brother. I believe it was he who bought land on the same day as John in Steuben County, NY. (July 15th 1812, Liber 11, page 53 and Liber 23 page 492). It also seems quite likely that the names of his children Ira Davis and S. Davis. This seems to suggest the desire to use his mother's surname. John is known to have had a brother Phineas. They lived in the same neighborhood.

I was grateful to get much of my information from my grand-aunt Jennie Lounsbury Miller over 21 years ago. She copied it from an old family bible. Unfortunately she died a short time later and all of her personal property was sold at auction. A large framed picture of her parents was recognized and recovered from a garage sale by my relative a few years ago.

Are copies of your publications still available for purchase? I would like to acquire them. Do you plan new editions in the future? Please add my name to your mailing list if you do.

For what it is worth, I have a note in my collection of data which was written by my grand-aunt Jennie. She stated that during the 1920s her father Charles A. Lounsbury was in communication with Harold C. Lounsberry of Marshalltown, Iowa. He came east to visit and to gather information on the family history. Harold was an attorney-at-law.
