Greetings to all the L relatives,

Here I am again racing against time to complete the newsletter, with not enough space to fit everything in. I'll try not to include something twice as I did with the letter from Louise De Long in the last issue. I never noticed that until sometime later. This cover letter was left to about the last thing. There are a few general things which I will mention.

I sincerely appreciate all the information that people send. It is just not possible to include all of it, so I try to do the best. When someone spots an error in a name, date or whatever, I would be grateful if it is called to my attention so it may be corrected in a subsequent issue. Also, I try to underline names and may miss some.

Reunions -- Be sure to check the reunion schedule on the last page. Try to attend one or more this summer. I'm sorry about any which have gone by. With some, the information is based on last year. Please let me know about them early.

Re-subscribing to The Tree -- Some subscriptions expire in June 1990. Information about renewal is on page 6. The mailing label has the expiration date for your subscription on it.

Family Group Form -- You've noticed a special form with this newsletter. You are encouraged to complete the form for yourself and other members of your family. Each form will help to create a more comprehensive record of the very large L family. Information about completing the form is on page 5. These forms can be shared with those who would like them to update their records, and some of the information used in The Lounsbury Tree.

Publications -- I would still like to do a listing of publications about L genealogy which are both available and out of print. Those who have published and have things to list for sale please let me know. Also, those which are no longer available—out of print. Note -- As far as I know, Lounsberry, Lounsbery, Lounsby, compiled by B. Clark, G.K. Dennis and M. Lounsby is out of print. Also, Holderbery Lounsbury by Gertrude K. Dennis and Marie Lounsby, is out of print.

Reproductions -- Many of the letters and other materials which I receive are reduced when photocopied, and also rearranged a bit so that they may not look just as you sent them to me. It is a matter of space to fit them in. I would appreciate any pictures of ancestors. They can be photocopied quite well, and will add interest to the newsletter.

Mailing labels -- They have been prepared by Lucretia and Bill Arthur, La Habra, CA. The date on the label indicates the date the subscription expires. I am very grateful to Bill and Lucretia for the labels. They will help tremendously when mailing the newsletter. Thanks so much from all of us Ls.

Preview of the next issue -- We have some interesting material on hand to use as space permits:

2. Background and current information about the Pennoyer Scholarship offered at Harvard to descendants of Richard Lounsby and Elizabeth Pennoyer.
(see page 11)
Does anyone have the address for Frank Lounsbury? The last issue of The Lounsbury Tree, addressed to him at 57 Eastern Parkway, Rivercliff, Section of Devon, Milford, CT 06460-5004 was returned, stamped "Moved, forwarding order expired." Please send any new address to the editor at the return address on this newsletter.

Lucretia and Bill Arthur of LaHabra CA have compiled on their computer all the queries which have appeared in all the issues of The Lounsbury Tree. A print-out was sent with the intention of repeating queries in future issues. There is no space for them in this issue; we will try another time. We will also like to know what queries have been answered. Repeating them may bring a response if there hadn't been one initially. We are grateful to Lucretia and Bill for doing this, as well as doing the mailing labels.

In the meantime, we hope readers will send in additional queries. Send them to Albert Lounsbury, 212 Nelson Avenue, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866. Check on page 9 for information about sending information. It will help in reproducing it and getting it ready for the newsletter.

Dear Mrs. Lounsbury:

I understand you are the Editor of the Lounsbury Tree, and that I can obtain a copy of the newsletter by sending you a SASE.

I am researching the line of Charity Lounsbury who married Henry Sloan (Wilt-Ohio 1842). She was the daughter of John Lounsbury Sr. 1731 and Sarah Letson 1729. John served in the Rev. war, but died 1811 before pension applications. We don't know anything of his parentage, although I suspect he came from Dutchess county and was related to John Lounsbury there.

If there is some way to coordinate research with others who might be working on the same lines through this newsletter, would you please advise me as to how this may be done.

Query:

Information wanted on Stephen Bella Lounsbury b. 15 Nov. 1710 CT d. 25 Dec. 1744 to Harriet moss, d. 13 Jan. 1872 (7) NY (1). He served as Quartermaster in the NY State Militia-Onondaga Co. 1795 and as Adjutant in Cortland Co. in 1839.

Information also wanted on Stephen Lounsbury, his father, b. 1736 Conncticut, New Haven, CT d. 16 Oct. 1784 to Hannah Sperry.

Would like to correspond with any one working on the Stephen Bella, Stephen, Josiah, Richard, Richard line.

Ronna Lounsbury
P. O. Box 57
Ottosen, Iowa 50570

I have conflicting information on lineage of sons of Richard Lounsbury and Elizabeth Penoyer. Original information had Richard married to widow, Abigail Thomas. Have information now supporting the possibility that John married Abigail and Richard married Elizabeth Dubois. Would like to correspond with those who are from John and Richard's line. Also those from Josiah line-son of John? Richard? Ronna Lounsbury, Box 67, Ottosen, Iowa 50570.

News from the Hennessy-Lounsberry Family——-

I have been in touch with Col. Harold Richard Hennessy, MD.(Ret.) and his wife, Helen Adele Lounsberry Hennessy, with whom we had lost contact for a couple of years. Martha (Mrs. C.H.) Lounsberry sent the address for which we are grateful.

Helen Adele’s lineage chart appears at the right. That is the kind of a chart or record that we all probably wish we had completed. It appears here to illustrate the style, completeness, and certainly the interest it creates. Helen and her family have done extensive research, much of which has been published. She has also contributed information for previous issues of the Lounsberry Tree. We hope the information which appears in this issue may help others to update any records they may have. It may also help to establish connections to other readers’ families.

Here is a copy of Harold’s “Business Card”, now that he is retired. I have seen some similar but nothing quite like this one.

He wrote on the back (3/21/90)

"I am age 87 and Helen is 84. We live in a retirement home place in Vernon Hills, Ill.” Happy 85th on June 5, Helen, and to you, Harold, on August 12 for your 87th. (I used the birth date on the Lineage Chart for your age, next birthday.) I guess you meant your 87th year in the message on the card. Happy birthdays from all the Le.

The Hennessy’s sent quite a lot of material but there isn’t space to share all of it herein. However, here are some highlights.

The family of Colonel Clement Augustus Lounsberry appears on this page at the right. You will note that he is an ancestor of Helen Adele’s.

Helen was cited in Foremost Women of the Twentieth Century. The biographical data included her many accomplishments: managing a printing business in Duluth, MN.; writing publications including eight hard-cover family genealogical books which are on file with the Minnesota Historical Society, St. Paul. Also, membership in numerous societies, recipient of numerous awards, most recently the "Colonial Order of the Crown", and the Plantagenet Society. Other information about Helen Adele appears on page 217 of Foremost Women of the Twentieth Century, published by International Biographical Centre, Cambridge, England, 1988.

Harold and Helen were both recognized in the September 1988 Active Link, a publication in the retirement community where they live. They deserve such recognition and have reason to celebrate. They have four children, 13 grandchildren, 2 great grandchildren, 50th wedding anniversary in 1980 with the 60th coming up this year on July 24. Both are very interested in genealogy (Harold caught the hobby bug from Helen Adele) and have co-authored nine family history-heritage books. They have four in their extended family with PhDs. Harold was recognized in The Standard Bearer, a newsletter of the Retired Officers Association.

Congratulations Dr. Harold Richard and Helen Adele from all the other Ls.

The Hennessy’s sent a copy of the certificate "Dakota Territory Pioneer", indicating that Helen Adele is a direct descendant of Col. Clement Agustus Lounsberry who was living in Dakota Territory in 1889 or earlier. They also sent an interesting chart concerning Generaimpressive. Perhaps more can be used in a future newsletter. Anyone wishing to contact the Hennessys with words of congratulations for their birthdays, anniversaries, outstanding accomplishments, etc., may do so at this address: Col and Mrs. Harold R. Hennessy, 10 E. Hawthorn Parkway, #422, Vernon-Hills, IL 60061.

Another Family Line....

The letter at the right tells about another very busy genealogist, Vona Smith. In addition to writing about the Dewitt book she has written, Vona has given her Lounsberry family line. Thanks Vona for the information. Your complete letter appears here in case someone would like to get in touch with you. We hope that you will be able to make some of the New York State reunions when you come this way. It would be great to have some Canadian Lounsberries with us.

Family Group Form

Speaking of family lines, enclosed with this issue of the newsletter is a Family Group Form sent by Lucretia Arthur in California. It has been modified somewhat with some instructions for completion. For all those who care to complete a form for yourself and other Lancers and descendants (the form may be photocopied), please follow these instructions; some appear on the edge of the form.

1. Please print or type all information.

2. The abbreviations on the form which may not be clear to everyone are: Chr.---Christened or baptized; Marr.---Married; Bur.---Buried.

3. Dates: Enter as Day--Month--Year.

4. Names: Use full names, keeping surnames (last name) in capitals; maiden name (in capitals) for women. Indicate widowed or remarried by placing maiden name in parenthesis.

5. Place: Town/Village/City in the first column; County in the 2nd; State/Province in the 3rd, and Country in the last.

6. Any "Other Marriage" information which will not fit under the Husband or Wife (line 7) may be entered in the space at the bottom right of the form.

7. Please list your sources, (public records, family Bible, certificates, church records, gravestones, family notes, etc.) at the bottom of the form.

8. Use the back of the form for any additional information or to clarify any entry.

9. Return the form to Albert Lounsbury, 212 Nelson Avenue, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866.

The information on the form may be useful for The Lounsberry Tree unless the sender prefers not to have it used. Copies of the forms can be sent to anyone who may be keeping comprehensive records and would (see page 6)

THE LOUNSbury TREE PUBLICATION DATES

AND CONTINUING SUBSCRIPTIONS.

I am planning to continue publishing
The Lounsbury Tree, but it will be an Oct./Nov. issue and an April/May issue.
That should fit my schedule a little better--getting the fall issue out before the holiday rush and the spring issue before the demands of outside work, beekeeping, etc. It will also be possible to include some of the early reunion dates on time.

If you wish to continue receiving The Lounsbury Tree, please send the $1.50 contribution for the two issues per year.
Please note the date on your mailing lael. That is when the "subscription" expires. Most have paid for one year; others for more than one. Please do not send money for more than one year ahead.

Deadlines for any materials for the newsletter are one month ahead of publication--September 15 and March 15. See page 9 for information about sending materials for The Lounsbury Tree.

Returning the form is optional, but we strongly encourage a response.
It will certainly help in expanding what family records we have. Once one starts to complete a form, it becomes an enjoyable challenge. Remem-

From the mailbag ----

Wildred L. D'Ambrogio, 25 Pleasant Street, North Reading, MA 01864, sent a photocopied picture of the Lounsbury Bicentennial Reunion (1983-1983), held in Petitcodiac, NB, Canada in 1983. It would not be clear enough to reproduce it for the newsletter. There looks to be well over 100 people in the picture and all are identified. They are all descendants of William and Grace Gray who settled there in 1873 and "started a bubbling Lounsbury population," as stated by Mildred. Perhaps some of our readers attended that reunion.
Anyone interested may be able to obtain a copy from Mildred.

Other highlights from her letter:
She has tracked down and photographed all the gravestones of direct Lounsbury ancestors in that area... She has grave rubbings of Canadian ancestors', stones and, also, those buried in New England... She has little information on the New York families.
She asks," Is it possible that the grave stones of Richard and Elizabeth John and Ann, Michael and Abigail, William and Sarah, have gravestones still standing? In New York? Besides their beautiful rubbings, they are further corroboration of the information I already have. Can someone supply me some information about them.
(If someone does supply this information, would he or she please send the information to The Lounsbury Tree editor? ) Mildred also has two pages of Lounsbury names and dates from the Registry of the Parish of Hacock, Yorkshire, England, 1557-

"These are some of the names I picked out at random: 'John Lounsby' had a child, christened Ellin on 23 January 1567. Also on the lists were Robert, Ralph, Roger, Peter, and Richard Lounsby."

Thanks, Mildred, for all the information. You offered to send the Lounsby-Anderson ancestors information. If you still care to do that, some of it may be used in the newsletter. Please send it to the return address for this newsletter.

The next time you drive up to a gasoline pump, look for one of these stickers. Such an inspection assures us of proper measure; or, in case of scales, proper weight. Sheldon L. Lounsby held/holds the position of Director/Sealer of Weights and Measures in Tioga County, NY. The obituary of Sheldon's father, Lewis J. Lounsby, and a tribute to his life appears in the Nov./Dec. issue of The Lounsby Tree. A wonderful person, missed by many.

In some other incoming mail, there was a letter from Harley L. Lounsby, 12 Bradley Street, Warren PA 16365. He would love to receive some mail from me, a member of his family. He has a copy of "Memories of Stephen A. Lounsby" and his son, as well as other L_ _-ys. He sent a typewritten "story", I6 pages both sides, entitled "Memories of Stephen A. Lounsby" and his son, Herman L. Lounsby, as told to Viola L. Putnam. It's a very interesting, but not possible to include in The Lounsby Tree. I have a copy, with Harley's permission, and would be willing to loan it to anyone. He or she may wish to photocopy it. Harley wrote, "Do with it whatever you wish. I have no children to leave it to; I'm the last one in my family."

In his letter, dated February 10, 1990, Harley, at age 81, wrote, "My father and mother lived on the old farm that was left him by his granddad... Dad and Mother passed away about 15 years ago... My granddad died at 45 years of age. Harley started work at the State Hospital at age 18... married January 13, 1936... then worked on the highway and drove school bus until 1941... then to Warren as an inspector... then to Warren as a consultant on where parts are made and, where Harley became a tool maker, working there for 41 years until he was 77. Harley was planning to remarry this month. Ester Eastman... they met in church... are planning to live at Harley's home in Warren. Our best wishes to you, Harley. I hope that you will receive some mail from some of our readers.

Dear Albert,

25/7/90

I wrote earlier telling you about a town and post office by the name of Lounsberry, South Dakota. I ordered the records from the National Archives in Washington, DC. I am sending you a few copies of the main papers.

Thomas S. Johnson made application for a post office to be called, Lounsberry, South Dakota on 3 June 1884. The post office of Lounsberry, South Dakota was established on 31 July 1884 with Thomas S. Johnson as postmaster. Being located on the county line it was first considered to be in Clark County and later as being in Day County, South Dakota. Thomas Johnson remained postmaster until 30 November 1891 when Peter J. Markrud became the postmaster. County lines were still a factor and on 26 February 1896 Lounsberry, South Dakota was considered to be located in Codington County. On 5 June 1906, postmaster--Peter J. Markrud made application to move the post office 1/2 mile south east to a location along the new railroad that had been established. He requested the name be LOUNSBERRY but a small settlement was already established there by the name Wallace. His request to move the post office was granted but not the name. The name of the post office was changed to Wallace, South Dakota on 12 February 1907 with Peter Markrud remaining as postmaster. The Wallace post office is still in existence today.

Sincerely,

Ronna Lounsberry
The memorial cards, obituaries, and brief biographies printed on this page were sent by various members of the family. The dates will indicate the period of time, and in some cases the longevity of that person's life. They may be read for general interest or to update genealogical records.

The memorial card for Claude Harold Lounsbury, known by many as Harold, was sent by Martha, his wife. (continued on page 9)

HENRY POST LOUNSBERRY

Henry Post Lounsbury was born at Dryden, Tompkins County, New York on 13 March 1818. He is believed to have had 10 to 12 wives. He was thought to be living in Virginia with at least one of the wives. No children by any wife were recorded. Both believed to have died. He drove a stagecoach in Maryland. On 26 August 1849 he married Susan H. Horton (wife #5) in Barton, Tioga County, New York. Shortly after the marriage, they went west to Michigan for a while. There is a theory that he was a Pennsylvanian and possibly came from sometime in the 1700's. It is also believed that they may not have headed west until 1856 or at least arrived in Iowa in 1856. By 1856 they were living in Illinois and possibly in the area that became the state of Illinois. Both believed to have died. He believed to have been buried in the church cemetery of the Zion Grove Presbyterian Church near Martella, Iowa, but records do not show any records. Children born to this union were: Newton (1830–1859), Stephen (1830–1859), James (1831–1832), John (1832–1833), Henry (1833–1834), Rebecca (1834–1835), and Harriet (1835–1836).}

In a letter dated Dec. 19, 1989, Martha states that they were married 57 years and Harold had heart trouble for many years and then suffered a stroke. He was a naval architect and worked mostly on destroyer design and overseeing the building of them for the Navy. In retirement he carved ducks, some of which he sold and Martha still has many. Martha states, "He was very talented, a gentle man, exceptionally proud, a stoic man who never complained all through his long illness. Martha, we extend condolences to you and your family.

In subsequent letters from Martha, she writes about her recovery from 3 major surgeries... our mutual (and others I'm sure) grief and dealing with the trauma and dreadful void left when one loses a loved one... Harold's father was Frederick Rowe Lounsbury, born in Marsheltown, IA. Helen Lounsbury Hennessy had sent her and Harold some very interesting information on their family including a diagram of their family tree, so professionally done. She sent a picture of her and Harold on their 50th anniversary in 1982 but said, "it is not sent for publication, just for you to see what Harold and I look like." It's a beautiful picture, Martha. I would like to use it sometime if you will say okay.

On the previous page, the list of DEATHS was sent by Corabelle (Mrs Alton) Lounsbury. The two biographies were sent by Roger and Ronna Lounsbury in response to the request in The Tree sometime back about 5 who had lived beyond 80 years. Note the reason Stephen spelled his name as he did. (see next column)
Study Favors Use of Team Teaching for Oft-Neglected Sixth-Graders

By BILL BILLITZER, Times Staff Writer

Sixth grade is a crucial, transitional year in any child's education, and team teaching appears to be the most effective way to help these oft-neglected students, according to a national study released Sunday in Anaheim.

The study done for the National Asso. of Secondary School Principals released at the group's national convention last week, observation of 132 sixth-graders in Seattle, Chicago, and Philadelphia.

The structure of sixth-grade teaching across the nation—from a single instructor in various subjects—the sixth-graders benefit from a teacher who stimulates the subject can be of greatly energetic.

John H. Lounsbury, a retired Georgia education dean and principal author of the study, said that the whole nation has problems with the middle years of schooling from grades six through eight, but particularly the sixth grade.

"There are, in fact, three types of sixth grades, each identifiable and fairly distinct," Lounsbury said in the report.

"The first is the traditional sixth grade, self-contained and elementary in nature and form. It is a single class group instructed in all or almost all the basic subjects and skills by one teacher. The second is the departmentalised sixth grade, where the subject can be of greater variety of students, the third is the team teaching method."

Lounsbury and J. Howard Johnston, University of Cincinnati education professor and co-author of the study, said at a news conference that "team teaching" usually means hiring more teachers.

"The class-size ratio remains the same," said Johnston, adding that the team concept simply means that the classes of teachers maintain for instance, coordinates with the teacher of English for the same sixth-grade group.

A major value in such teaming, among teachers, is that students can feel less "lost" in moving from one subject to another during the school day.

"Middle-level schools tend to be fairly large, which makes curriculum options greater, but also produce stress for younger students and lead to the anonymity that plagues contemporary education," their report said.

The study repeatedly noted that sixth-graders are undergoing rapid physical and emotional growth and that these must be taken into consideration by their teachers.

Too many sixth-grade classes require students to sit too long, even though children at that age are naturally restless, the study found.

"The growing bodies of 11-year-olds call for more opportunities for physical movement than schools presently provide," the report said.

Does anyone know the whereabouts of John H. Lounsbury? The Lounsbury Tree goes to three John Lounsburys, but according to the information we have, none are this John Lounsbury. Any information about him would be appreciated by the editor. Lucretia, can you tell us more about him?
From the L. . . y mailbag. More appears on page 6 and 7.

A note from Harley R. Lounsbery, Warren, PA gives this information:
William Lounsbery was the son of Harley R. Lounsbery. He was 22 years of age when he got killed in Vietnam in 1969. Harley R. Lounsbery, age 81, is the son of James D. Lounsbery who was born in 1885. James Lounsbery was the son of Harley B. Lounsbery who was born in 1838 to Daniel Lounsbery who was born in 1795.

Harley has the same question others have asked, "Can you tell me if the Mrs. Lansbury in 'Murder She Wrote' on TV is part of our family tree?" Harley, I can't. I have tried to get some information about her in regard to that question, but no answer as yet. I guess we would all like to think that she is related. (Al Lounsbery) There is more information from Harley on page 7.

Some older correspondence, dated Sept. 1988 from Martha and Harold Lounsberry--Martha was one to respond to the request for names of cemeteries where Lo . . . ys are buried. The request was in hopes of writing a Directory sometime. Maybe some day when I have more data. Anyway, Martha gave this information. "My grandfather Alexander Abanorther Lounsberry is buried in Sheridan, WY; his wife Martha E Whitney Lounsberry is buried in Washelli Cemetery in Seattle, WA. Both my father, Frederick Rowe Lounsberry and my mother, Anna MacDonald Lounsberry are buried in San Bernardino, CA." Since that note Harold passed away. A tribute to him appears on page 8.
