Lounsbury Lingo

You will notice a wide variety of surname spellings associated with the Lounsbury Tree. The most common spelling is "Lounsbury" though "Lounsberry" and "Lounsbey" are also prevalent. In 99% of researched cases, Canadians and Americans with these surname spellings are linked by common ancestors: Richard Lounsbury and Elizabeth (Pennoyer) Lounsbury of what is now Rye, NY, who were married there in 1670. There are many other surname variations who fit our extended family tree, including Lansbury (though apparently not the famous actress Angela Lansbury), Lainspeary, and Lonsberry.

For simplicity, we use the letter "L" to denote the surname regardless of its spelling. Hence the phrasing "L" Tree at the top of this page.

Husband Declared Dead Returns

The Rochester Democrat Chronicle, Rochester, New York, of January 28, 1901 contains an interesting article. Albert C. Johnson the husband of the former Miss Jennie Lounsbury went searching for minerals in wilds of Brazil. He contracted brain fever and his partner in the search was sure that there was no hope of recovery and the partner left the country. He wrote to Jennie that Johnson was dead. His wife collected $7,000 in life insurance. For six months Johnson lay between life and death and then awoke out of his delirium. Somehow a letter had got to him from his mother informing him that he had been reported dead.

Upon his return to the United States Johnson attempted to contact his wife but she had moved first to France and then to Michigan. The article states that recently he learned that she had returned to the United States and finally located her at Belding, Ionia County, Michigan where her father lived. She was the only child of John Henry and Adelaide Lounsbury originally from Bethany, Genesee County, New York. It was yet to be determined whether she had to repay the money.

Ira Davis is buried at the Pipersville Cemetery, Ixonia, Watertown, Jefferson County, WI. As you will see when you view it, it would appear that someone has replaced the headstone, as it appears to be too new. Ira Davis owned land which meandered on the east and west side of the Rock River. He purchased most of the land previously owned by his wife Betsy's father, Benjamin Piper. Her parents were the first settlers in the Village of Watertown, having come to the Wisconsin Territory in 1835, first at Milwaukee. The father returned to New York and brought the family. He then received several land grants, two of which consisted of about 200 acres. This is what Ira Davis purchased. Ira then gave or sold acreage to his three sons, Henry Davis, Ira Daniel, and Fremont. Ira Daniel had about 17 acres, and he was a truck farmer. Henry Davis raised some cattle, and owned the largest tract. All of this land was located in Section 30 of Ixonia Township. Most everything Ira Davis acquired by land grants was sold off. The Rock River was notorious for flooding.

Betsy Piper Lounsbury's father built a log cabin, which was then replaced with a frame building. That home became an inn. Her father also built the Plank Road, which ran from the Village of Watertown to Milwaukee. It was built so that the farmers could get their goods to market in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Elizabeth "Betsy" Piper Lounsbury died after the June 24, 1880 census, but unknown where. There is a Betsy Lounsbury listed in the online Wisconsin Historical Society site, births, deaths, and marriage index who died 09 Oct 1899

Children of Ira Lounsbury and Elizabeth Piper are:

- i. Henry Davis<sup>8</sup> Lounsbury, born 10 Apr 1849 in Watertown, Jefferson, WI; died 1914 in WI.
- ii. Benjamin Piper Lounsbury, born 25 Jan 1851 in WI; died 19 Feb 1926 in Fontanelle, Adair, IA.
- iii. Ira Daniel Lounsbury, born 20 Oct 1852 in Watertown, Jefferson, WI; died 22 Mar 1927 in Madison, WI.
- iv. Mary Jane Lounsbury, born 17 Jun 1854 in Watertown, Dodge & Jefferson, WI; died 18 Jan 1927 in Pipersville, WI. Burial: Pipersville Cemetery. (see article in Watertown Daily Times; Jan. 19, 1927)
- v. William John Lounsbury, born 28 Sep 1856 in WI; died 21 Mar 1857 in WI<sup>1</sup>.
- vi. John Lounsbury, born 02 Aug 1858 in Pipersville, Jefferson, WI; died 13 Feb 1924 in Sherry, Wood, WI.
- vii. Fremont Lawson Lounsbury, born 25 Jun 1861 in Pipersville, WI; died 03 Jan 1927.

Generation No. 2

2. Henry Davis Lounsbury was born 10 Apr 1849 in Watertown, Jefferson, WI, and died 1914 in WI. He married Jessie Patton 03 Feb 1881 in Summit, Waukesha, WI. She was born 1859 in Summit, Waukesha, WI, and died 18 Mar 1889 in WI. Henry D. Lounsbury was reared under the parental roof and after completing the course offered in the public schools of Watertown attended the Northwestern College there. After finishing his education he engaged in farming in association with his father until the latter's death and thereafter continued upon the home farm until 1880, when he went to Kingsbury county, South Dakota, and took up as a claim a quarter section of land.

[Researcher's notes: Henry D., Ira D., John, and Fremont, brothers, are listed in the 1880 US Census, District #110, Kingsbury County, Dakota Territory [later would be called Manchester, South Dakota] Ira D. is listed as single, but he was already married to Martha, who is listed in the 1880 US Census in Watertown, and indicates that her husband is in Dakota building a house. Henry D., John, and Fremont were not yet married.]

A short time afterward he returned to Ixonia township, Jefferson county, but in the spring of 1881 went to Waukesha county, Wisconsin, where he remained for three years. He then once more took up his residence upon the home farm on section 30, Ixonia township, Jefferson county, and has since concentrated his energies upon the cultivation and improvement of that place. He raises some grain for the market and also engaged in dairying, both branches of his business proving profitable.

Mr. Lounsbury was married on the 3rd of February, 1881, to Miss Jessie Patton, who was born in Summit, Waukesha county, Wisconsin. Her parents were natives of England but became pioneer settlers of Jefferson county. [Researcher's notes: Jessie's father, James Patton, was born in England; her mother Adelia/Fidelia was born in NY state). Their last residence was in 1880 in Town of Summit, Post Office Oconomowoc, Waukesha County, WI]. To Mr. and Mrs. Lounsbury were born four children: Forest, a graduate of the Watertown high school, died in 1906, when twenty-three years old; Edna, who also graduated from the Watertown high school and is now at home; Blanche, who died in 1906; and Bruce, who died in infancy. The wife and mother is likewise deceased.

Mr. Lounsbury supports the Republican party at the polls as he believes firmly in its fundamental policies. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and fraternally is identified with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, connections which indicate the high principles which have always governed his conduct. The greater part of his life has been passed in this county and his appreciation of the excellent conditions existing here today is the greater because he can remember the hardships and inconveniences which the early settlers had to endure. In his early boyhood Jefferson county was still inhabited by Indians, wild game abounded, the nearest market was Milwaukee and public roads were unknown, the only highways being the trails blazed through the forests. His father was a factor in the early development of the county, and the son in his generation is contributing to the advancement of agricultural and dairying interests in his locality.

Ira Davis Lounsbury married Betsy Piper 06 APR 1846 in the Village of Watertown, Jefferson County, WI.

Elizabeth "Betsy" Piper Lounsbury died after the June 24, 1880 census, but unknown where. There is a Betsy Lounsbury listed in the online Wisconsin Historical Society site, births, deaths, and marriage index who died 09 Oct 1899.

Funeral services were to be held at the Postelwaite funeral home in Oak Park.

Mrs. Lounsbury lived in Madison most of her married life, moving to Oak Park 15 years ago. She was active in women's organizations here. Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Sylvia Martin, Dorothy and Helen, all of Oak Park; nine grandchildren, including Mrs. Lawrence Brereton and John Lounsbury, both of Madison; 16 great grandchildren, and 3 great-great grandchildren.

[Nine grandchildren would be: i) Mary Elizabeth Lounsbury Brereton; ii) John Lounsbury; iii) Alice Lounsbury Hague; iv) Ira F. Lounsbury; v) Edward Nathan Strait, Jr.; vi) Richard William Lounsbury; vii) Benjamin Franklin Lounsbury; viii) Elinor Lounsbury; ix); Elizabeth Lounsbury]

Missing are children of Sylvia Elizabeth Lounsbury Martin, who were George Martin born Feb 1919 in Cook County, IL and Sylvia Martin, born _____. Someone may have forgotten them.

From the time of Martha's marriage to Ira Daniel in 1872 and until 1900, they lived in Watertown, Ixonia Township (PO Pipersville), Jefferson County. However, Ira Daniel continued to live on the farm until 1910 (he owned 18 acres, called "Fairview Garden." He was basically a "truck farmer." He raised melons, sweet corn, peas, and choice small fruits. Fall and winter pickles were a "specialty." He wanted Martha and children to go to Madison with the children so that they would have access to college. They rented in Madison until Ira came. The home they lived in once he moved to Madison was at 1815 Madison St., which was one of the lots their son, Dr. Benjamin F. Lounsbury purchased in 1918. He purchased 3 lots, all on Madison St. The area they lived in was known as "Wingra Addition" to the City of Madison. It is now considered an historic district. Lake Wingra is in the neighborhood. The cemetery they are buried in is west of the area in which they lived. One of the lots Dr. Ben owned on Madison St., perhaps a home built on it at the time it was sold, was to his brother, John Milton Lounsbury. ( source Mary Mys)

Married at her parents' residence. They then moved to IL. George Winsor Martin born 18 Aug 1889 in Atlanta, GA. They appear in the 1920 US Census in IL, Village of Oak Park, Cook County, W. Washington Blvd., listed as Geo W. Martin, age 31, Sylvia, age 32, and George E., 7/12. They appear in the 1930 US Census, listed as Winsor Martin, age 40, Sylvia E., age 40, George E., son, 10, and Sylvia. Son George was born in 1919, but I am unable to tell which George as there were several born the same month. Daughter Sylvia Martin was born 14 June 1923 in Cook County, IL. They are my mystery family. In the following Obit for Helen in 1951, Sylvia is still living in Oak Park. Because Sylvia's age varies from census to census, I am unable to tell if she is the one who died in another county in IL. George Winsor Martin is listed for both the WWI and WWII Drafts, and his age and birth place are consistent. Sylvia is also listed as his wife. (source Mary Mys)

FREMONT LOUNSBURY TAKEN BY DEATH AT PIPERSVILLE

Fremont Lounsbury, a prominent resident of Pipersville, died at the family home at 6 o'clock Monday evening following a five-days illness of influenza and yellow jaundice. He had been in poor health for many years, however.

Mr. Lounsbury was a native of Pipersville, having been born there on June 25, 1861. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira Daniel [sic] Lounsbury, pioneer residents of that section. He spent practically his entire life there and was one of the best known men in that section. He was for many years engaged in fruit farming.

Surviving Mr. Lounsbury are his wife, formerly Miss Lydia A. Beaulieu and one son, Carl Lounsbury of Watertown. Ira Daniel Lounsbury of Madison is a brother and Miss Mary Lounsbury of Pipersville is a sister.

As a citizen and as a friend and neighbor, Mr. Lounsbury was looked upon by all who knew him as a man of sterling character. He was held in the highest respect and esteem by the people of his community and also numbered many Watertown among his friends and acquaintances. (Watertown Daily Times; January 4, 1927)

13. Lester Alphonse<sup>9</sup> Lounsbury was born 11 Jan 1869 in Farmington, Jefferson, Wisconsin, and died 1937 in Iowa, United States. He married Myrtle Montgomery 16 Mar 1893 in Adair, IA. She was born 13 Jan 1872 in Clyde Twp, Whiteside Co, Illinois, and died 11 Nov 1958 in Greenfield, Adair, Iowa, United States. Research by Charlotte LaVonne Murphy daughter of Austa Lounsbury has revealed that Lester was the child of Ellen Aspinwall by her first marriage to Chauncey Hawes. Apparently Ellen and Chauncey divorced around the time Lester was one year old, I believe they were married in 1866. 1870 census shows her back with her parents going by Aspinwall but lists Lester 1 yr. old by Hawes.

Ben Lounsbury and Ellen (Aspinwall) moved from Farmington, Jefferson, Wisconsin in 1883 to Fontanelle, Adair, Iowa with Lester and the Iowa census for 1885 lists Lester Lounsbury ~ age 15

Clinic of Dr. B. F. Lounsbury, Washington Boulevard Hospital

Dr. Lounsbury had three unusual cases of injury involving the heel. His reports indicate that the problems were unique and because of the unusual features of the cases he thought them of enough interest to present his reports. Skin grafts were applied by previous doctors. Dr. Lounsbury applied a flap from the back of the thigh at the end of the heel, held in place by a cast. The patient was then able to resume work.

Gramma Austa made the BEST cookies ever. Sugar cookies with either half a marachino cherry or walnut on top! She would let me have ONE before meals when I lived with her, Grampa Murphy and Great Gramma Lounsbury in Greenfield Iowa, but I sure had to eat my meal or NO MORE cookie before the meal. She was the main memory of my very young childhood days along with her MOM, Gramma Lounsbury. I was there with them from the time I was about a year old until about 3 or 4 I think from reading old clippings. She was so kind and caring, loved animals and there were always farm animals and pets.

She never forgot a holiday or birthday, I still have a dollar she sent to me for my Birthday in 1960 along with the card and loving letter she wrote with it.

When I would get to visit her we would go to her farm so I could ride the horses. I loved that too. I FELT her love and will carry that and her memory always.
