Subscribing to The "L" Tree

The Tree is published twice yearly in the spring and fall. As I am not sure as to how long I will continue to publish this newsletter. I am no longer accepting new land mail subscriptions. I will continue the newsletter for the time being and mail existing postal subscriptions without any additional charge and also post them on the blog. I also hope to add additional material on the blog. I would welcome a replacement editor or joint editors. Current subscriptions will continue without additional charge.

Lounsbury Lingo

You will notice a wide variety of surname spellings associated with the Lounsbury Tree. The most common spelling is "Lounsbury" though "Lounsberry" and "Lounsbery" are also prevalent. In 99% of researched cases, Canadians and Americans with these surname spellings are linked by common ancestors: Richard Lounsbury and Elizabeth (Pennoyer) Lounsbury of what is now Rye, NY, who were married there in 1670. There are many other surname variations who fit our extended family tree, including Lansbury (though apparently not the famous actress Angela Lansbury), Lainspeary, and Lonsberry.

For simplicity, we use the letter "L" to denote the surname regardless of its spelling. Hence the phrasing "L" Tree at the top of this page.

Barbara Mariner LOUNSBURY, Monticello, NY, Formerly of Hurleyville, NY

A lifelong resident of Sullivan County and a homemaker, of Monticello, passed away peacefully after a long illness on Monday, January 11, 2010 at the Sullivan County Adult Care Center in Liberty. She was 83

Barbara was born in Monticello on September 17, 1926 to the late Freeman B. and Helen Mariner.

Barbara graduated from Monticello High School. During World War II, she worked as a telephone operator in Rochester, NY, while her fiancé, Jim, served in the Navy in the South Pacific. They married on April 27, 1946, and settled to raise their family in Hurleyville on Columbia Hill, near the Lounsbury family farm. Barbara was a constant in the Hurleyville Methodist Church for decades, organizing and managing countless church suppers, holiday festivities, flea markets, church school activities, and other fundraisers to support the church. "Aunt Barbara," as she was known to many, whether you were related or not, was an avid reader and rooted for the Yankees. Friends and family experienced her wonderful generosity in dozens of colorful afghan blankets and hundreds of pies and cakes she made for friends, family, and strangers. She and Jim spent their winters in sunny Florida for 25 years, where many more snowbirds received the fruits of her generosity. She and Jim celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary last year. We will miss you as dear wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and friend to all.

She is survived by her loving husband, Harry James (Jim) Lounsbury at home; two sons, James Lewis Lounsbury and his wife, Diana Clancy of Jacksonville, FL and Paul Richard Lounsbury and his wife, Kathy of Grahamsville; four granddaughters: Jill Woodruff and her husband, Gary of Springwater, NY, Cara Dillon and her husband, Brian of Harrisburg, NC, Ashley Spangenberg and her husband, Tyler of Gansevoort, NY, and Allison Buckingham and her husband, Grant of Cleburne, TX; and four great-grandchildren: Zoe Woodruff of Springwater, NY, and Jack and Caroline Spangenberg of Gansevoort, NY and Brian Dillon III of Harrisburg, NC; a brother, Freeman B. Mariner of Bothel, WA; and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a son, Dennis Lee Lounsbury and two brothers, Wilfred B. Mariner and Ralph O. Mariner.

Funeral services were held on Friday, January 15, at 11 a.m. at Ramsay's Funeral Home. Rev. Paul Ruter will officiate. Burial will follow the services at Hurleyville Cemetery, Hurleyville.

Dorothy L. LENT (nee LOUNSBURY), formerly from Peekskill until moving to Florida in 1989, passed away on Jan. 30, at her home in Holly Hill, FL. She was 83.

She was born in Yorktown, on April 17, 1926, daughter of the late Martin Van Buren Lounsbury and Helen Lott Dyckman. She enjoyed many things in life, but mostly reading, and in her younger years she was an avid gardener.

She is survived by her sister Nellie L. Dorr, her nieces: Christine Tisdale and Lutrell Bowers; her nephew Perley Mason. She was predeceased by her brother and two sisters: DeWitt Lounsbury, Helen Mason, Irene Livermore.

Funeral services were held down in Florida for her family & friends on Wednesday, Feb. 3, and she was interred in the Hillside Cemetery, Cortlandt Manor, NY. Local funeral arrangements were entrusted to the E. O. Curry Funeral Home, 313 N. James Street, Peekskill.

Dan LANSBERRY, 1958 – 2010, 51, of Dover died Tuesday, Jan. 5, 2010, in Brunswick, Ga., from an apparent heart attack while traveling to the funeral services of his mother-in-law, Margaret "Kathy" Easlick, in Florida.

Born Oct. 1, 1958, in Beaver Falls, Pa., he was a son of Paul "Jack" Lansberry of Beaver Falls and the late Patricia Anne Craig Lansberry. Dan attended Blackhawk High School, graduating in 1977. While there, he ran track and cross-country, played basketball and was co-editor of the school newspaper. Dan scored in the top 2 percent of the nation on his PSAT test.

He continued his education at Penn State University, majoring in Metallurgy. After graduation in 1981, Dan went to work in the steel industry. He was employed by Greer Steel in Dover for 13 years, and for the last nine years, by WCI Steel (now Seversal North America). Dan enjoyed working on specialty steel and was Senior Engineer Special Products.

Since June of 2009, Dan had worked in Dearborn, Mich., coming home to Dover on weekends, at which time he'd host family barbecues and get "doggie therapy" from his "grand-dogs." Dan enjoyed socializing and "everybody knew his name."

Dan was a member of Broadway United Methodist Church in New Philadelphia. He believed in prayer, sending up prayer for friends and family, and exchanging Bible verses. He always dropped donations in Salvation Army kettles, purchased gifts for Share-A-Christmas and donated to the Greater Dover-New Philadelphia Food Pantry. Dan also gave of his time generously, volunteering as a Dover Girls' Softball coach, as a timer for Dover Middle School Track and as a scorekeeper for Dover Cross Country.

In addition to his father, he is survived by his wife, Connie Easlick Lansberry, whom he married on May 25, 1985; his daughters, Tricia Lansberry and Kathie (fiance, Cory Ayers) Lansberry, both of Dover; his stepmother (whom he called "Mom"), Thora Martella Lansberry, his sisters, Rebecca "Becky" (Warren) Simons and Trisha Lansberry, and his brother, Joseph Lansberry, all of Beaver County, Pa.

A funeral service was held Saturday, Jan. 16, at 11 a.m., in Broadway United Methodist Church, 120 Church Ave. SE, New Philadelphia, with Pastor Bill Sowers officiating. Burial in Dover Burial Park.

IRA DAVIS LOUNSBURY and ELIZABETH alia BETSY PIPER

Elizabeth alia Betsy Piper born 12 MAY 1826 in New York State; died 09 OCT 1899 in Pipersville, Jefferson County, WI; burial next to husband at Pipersville Cemetery, Jefferson County, WI.

SON JOHN LOUNSBURY and LILLIAN MAE ASPINWALL

Daughter Bessie Mae Lounsbury born 19 JAN 1883 in Pipersville, Ixonia Township, Jefferson County, WI.

Married Homer Charles Cook 27 SEP 1919 in Sherry, Wood County, WI. Married at her parents' home. (Homer Charles Cook was born in Pennsylvania). Bessie Mae Lounsbury divorced Homer Charles Cook prior to 1930 and resumed her maiden name, LOUNSBURY. Bessie Mae Lounsbury died 19 DEC 1969 in Watertown, Jefferson, Jefferson County, WI. (WI DEATH INDEX)

Under IRA DANIEL LOUNSBURY and MARTHA MINERVA JORDAN

Your #17: John Milton Lounsbury born 28 DECEMBER 1873 in Watertown, Ixonia Township, Jefferson Co., WI. He WAS NOT BORN IN MANITOWOC CO., WI, but died there. He has a WWI Draft Card, which gives me his middle name.

Thomas Lounsbury, who died during WWII, was NOT DIVORCED from Georgia Whiting. She remained a widow for quite some time after his death, and then remarried. She lived with her parents while he was in service and after Thomas Lounsbury's death. One of the obits says survived by his wife and two children. Whoever sourced that they were divorced is incorrect.

On your No. 42: The correct spelling is HAUGE. Alice B. Lounsbury, daughter of Fremont Lawson Lounsbury and PRIEBE was born 03 June 1910 in Madison, Dane County, WI. Married HOWARD LEROY HAUGE ca 1929-1930 in Madison, Dane County, WI. His parents were of Norwegian descent. He obtained his medical degree from the University of Wisconsin after their marriage. Yes, he worked for an insurance company as a head in Flushing, New York. HOWARD LEROY HAUGE born 15 Dec 1906 in Westby, Christiana Township, Vernon County, WI; died 28 MAR 1986 in Pompano Beach, Broward County, FL. ALICE B. LOUNSBURY HAUGE died 25 APR 1976 in Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, FL. They had children who were born in Madison, WI, but unknown names.

Son of Dr. Ben Franklin Lounsbury and Williams:

Richard William Lounsbury; married Gwendolyn Cole 04 SEP 1937 in Crittenden Co., Arkansas; license date Certificate 07067; Vol. 1. Names: Richard Lounsbury and Gwendolyn Cole

Richard W. LOUNSBURY married Georgia DISCH 02 AUG 1941 in Ste. Genevieve, Ste. Genevieve Co., MO., by Justice of Peace

Richard W. stated that he lived in Chicago, Cook Co., IL and was over the age of 21; Georgia Disch stated that she was over the age of 18.

As to John Glenn Lounsbury and Anna Louise alia Louise Jorgensen's other two children (FLOYD BEING THE OTHER):

JOHN GORDON alia GORDON LOUNSBURY born 31 March 1919 in Sherry, Wood County, WI. He married Helen UNKNOWN SURNAME ca 1939-1940. Unknown where GORDON LOUNSBURY died 06 MAR 1950 in Waukesha, Waukesha County, WI.

OBITUARY: Waukesha Daily Freeman, Monday, March 6, 1950, page 10

Father of Three Dies at 30 years.

Gordon Lounsbury died suddenly at his home at 131 South St. this morning. He was 30 years old and the father of three small children. Lounsbury had been employed at the Alloy Products Corp. for the past nine years and was a member of the First Presbyterian church. He was born in Sherry, Wis., on March 31, 1919. Lounsbury had been ill for several days with a type of influenza. He worked for the shipping room of the Alloy Products corp. He is survived by his wife, Helen, and three children, Lynn, 10, Tommy, 6, and Barbara 4. Also surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Lounsbury, 203 Dunbar Ave.; a brother, Floyd, who is a professor at Yale University; and a sister, Elva of Pittsburgh.

The Rev. Aubrey Young will conduct funeral services at the Lyle-Tuschen funeral home. Internment will be at Prairie Home Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. tomorrow.

NOTE: Unknown if his wife remarried, but the two daughters, Lynn and Barbara died. Unknown when. The only child who lived was Thomas, who married twice, and died in Racine, Racine County, WI. See his SSDI.

Daughter of John Glenn Lounsbury and Anna Louise Jorgensen:

Elva Louise Lounsbury born 07 July 1916 in Sherry, Wood Co., WI; died 07 NOV 2003 in Delavan, Walworth County, WI; burial at Prairie Home Cemetery, Waukesha, WI. Unknown what her occupation was. She lived in Pittsburgh, PA, lived in Dundee, IL, and in WI.

NOTE: Somewhere someone has noted a 1930 US Census in Michigan for Fremont L. Lounsbury. He would be the son of IRA DANIEL LOUNSBURY. In the 1920 US Census he and his family were living in Seattle, King Co., WA. and he was working for a security company. Anyone who views that 1930 US Census can plainly see where he was. But, that is him. There is no 1930 US Census for his wife or children, who were probably living back in WI at the time.

Hi, Bill,

Just brought up issue #49 of the L Tree and noticed a couple of rather unimportant dates. Just thought that to keep the records straight, I should mention them and if you have an eraser handy you might eliminate any future confusion.

Issue # 49, Page 11, line 15 dealing with Benjamin Howard Lounsbury and his wife Edna Mae Woodruff (my grandparents). Both died in Oskaloosa, IA and both now buried in Canby, IA. May have had funerals in the Canby area.

Of their children, Alice Gwendolyn Lounsbury (my mother); Died in Oskaloosa, IA on August 11, 2009 at age 102 years, 9+ months and is buried there in Forest Cemetery She had married Harold Willis Parker in 1929 and had four children, all still living: Richard Willis (me), William Boyd, Nancy Diane, and John Kenneth Wayne.

I enjoy the publication tho I'm not really into genealogy that heavy, but I seem to have "inherited" a lot of my mother's old family papers after her death last August. I got my slight interest after reading a lot of 130 year old letters written by and to Ellen L. Aspinwall/Hawes/Lounsbury about her life and times. They really brought her to life for me. We are trying to preserve those and many more from other Aspinwalls for future readers.

Thanks for your efforts,

Dick

(by the way; A picture of mom and her grandfather Benjamin Piper Lounsbury, posted in the last issue lists me as Richard Woodruff instead of Parker. Woodruff was my maternal grandmother's maiden name, so somehow that leaked in. No problem)

The Wellsboro Agitator, Wellsboro, Pennsylvania - May 18, 1886

At Lounsbury, New York, four miles west of Owego, New York, last week, Monday morning. Norman Lounsbury aged 72, shot and killed his wife, aged 17, and his nephew and then killed himself.
