Subscribing to The “L” Tree

The Tree is normally published twice yearly in the spring and fall. As I am not sure as to how long I will continue to publish this newsletter. I am no longer accepting new land mail subscriptions. I will continue the newsletter for the time being and mail existing postal subscriptions without any additional charge and also post them on the blog, I would welcome a replacement editor or joint editors.

My mailing address is: William Mac Donald, 692 Norfolk County Road 28, Rural Route 5, Langton, Ontario, N0E 1G0, Canada or email wmacdonald@kwic.com

Lounsbury Lingo

You will notice a wide variety of surname spellings associated with the Lounsbury Tree. The most common spelling is “Lounsbury” though “Lounsberry” and “Lounsbery” are also prevalent. In 99% of researched cases, Canadians and Americans with these surname spellings are linked by common ancestors: Richard Lounsbury and Elizabeth (Pennoyer) Lounsbury of what is now Rye, NY, who were married there in 1670. There are many other surname variations who fit our extended family tree, including Lansbury (though apparently not the famous actress Angela Lansbury), Lainspeary, and Lonsberry.

For simplicity, we use the letter “L” to denote the surname regardless of its spelling. Hence the phrasing “L” Tree at the top of this page.

Bethany Sketches: He was a man of excellent judgment and was regarded as one of the most thorough and thrifty farmers in the town. He lived for a long time in a little house much too small for the convenience of his eleven children, but in 1811, before his twelfth child was born, he built what was then the largest and the most costly house in the town. He at one time owned fourteen hundred acres of land in Bethany and in New York State. On what was then his farm, a few rods from the old homestead, is the Lounsbury cemetery, which was set apart by Timothy and enclosed with a neat and strong fence. (page130)

Notes for Hannah French: The cost of her coffin made by Burton Sperry was $6.00.

Timothy4 tenth child of Josiah3 and Ruth (Lines) Lounsberry, m. Hannah, daughter of Nathan Smith of Woodbridge. This Hannah remembers well when the lower green of New Haven, Connecticut, was an alder swamp. The green is now called Rooster Square. At the date of her death (April 4, 1828) Alvin Sperry presented a bill of $3.50 to her estate for her coffin which he had made. This bill is among more than one hundred old deeds in the possession of the New Haven Colony Historical Society. (Note: The New Haven Colony Historical Society has a record of receiving deeds as Emma has indicated, but the librarian could not locate them in the library. She explained that the deeds were not processed when received and were stored in the basement with a vast number of other unprocessed documents. She said that the Society had neither the funds nor the personnel to process the documents in the foreseeable future. The only records found were some account books of Timothy5). Following Letters

Editor's Note: On the following two pages are copies of two letters sent to Dexter Lewis Lounsbury. I have a series of these letters.
Dec. 31, 1867

Dear Doctor and Mary,

I am glad to hear from you and to know that you are all well. I hope you will come home soon. I am very busy at my work and I have so much to do that I can hardly find time to write. I hope you will get all the things you need and that you will come home soon. If you cannot come home, I will send you some things.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

P.S. I have enclosed a small sum of money for your expenses.
I cannot see very well. Plumb said he had been to Williams and said Thila was going to be married in the next three weeks but I guess it is one of his lies. I have some news to you. You have not heard from me, but Quarry is dead and Deed Quarry and Emma Clark are married now. I do not know how I want to say it, but if I could I would replace your horse. I felt very sorry to hear that way. I would send you some more coal and some other things if I could come home and get them if you can. I must end. You good night and get some other way. My love to Mary. Yours truly and affectionately.

Maria Lounsbury

* This volume has not yet been filed with the Minnesota Historical Society. + Roy Castor 3rd has all data on No 7

Most of the Hennessy's writing projects have been completed, still there remains the worthy effort to acquaint our grandchildren with their great grandparents, plus a few others who fit into the picture. The immediate target concerns the Lounsberys (Fred and Laura) and (Maurice and Saral Hennessy) parents of Helen Adele (Lounsberry) and Harold Richard Hennessy, Sr. It is for this reason volume number 9 was prepared.

Grandchildren, normally know their grandparents, but unless motivated, seldom know much about their great grandparents. They should be knowledgeable, but due to the age factor, the stress of day by day living; together with the lack of personal reminiscences, great grand parents; most of the time, are assigned to the "long, long ago." But with it all, a record of talents and achievements, some of them very outstanding, can be read in volume number 9. At this moment the only thing necessary to remember --- is --- There is a reference. Check it out sometime.

With kindest personal regards to each of you

Helen and Harold

DOROTHY VAN DRIEST LANSBERRY - Dorothy passed away at home on Oct. 22, 2013, less than two weeks before her 85th birthday. She is remembered as a wonderful, generous person who enjoyed hugs, dogs, family and friends.

Dorothy, and identical twin sister Doris, were born in Roundup, MT, on Nov. 3, 1928, to parents Lena and Frank Van Driest. Both were schooled in Klein, Mont., and later Humboldt, Iowa, after which they attended Montana State University, earning degrees in nursing.

While at MSU, Dorothy met her future husband, Frank A. Lansberry, who helped her get through some troublesome math classes. They were married in February 1951. Frank earned his degree in Civil Engineering and found work with the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation at the Canyon Ferry Dam. This employment resulted in the family moving from Montana to North Dakota, to Virginia for a stint in Washington, D.C., and finally to the Glen Canyon Dam site at Page, Ariz. During these years, they were blessed with five children: Connie, Allen, Evie, Barbara and John.

Dorothy worked as a nurse at the new Page Hospital where she spearheaded the effort to procure an incubator for the maternity ward.

In Dorothy's later years she moved to Kalispell, Mont., where she found a warm community centered around Sykes Restaurant and general store. Sykes welcomed locals, especially seniors, with 10-cent coffee, local musicians, and free Thanksgiving dinners for all. Her good friend, Golda, and she were regular customers.

Dorothy eventually moved to Green Valley, Ariz., to be closer to family. There she met Ramona, her part-time caregiver, who became a dear friend. Ultimately, as hearing and sight failed, Dorothy moved in with her daughter Connie in Rio Rico. It was there, in nearby Nogales, that Dorothy met with yet a new group at TOPS, women supporting each other with weight loss. These women were to become especially cherished friends.

Dorothy is survived by her children: Connie Williams of Rio Rico, Evie Lansberry of Santa Monica, CA, Barbara Gaston of Austin, TX, John Lansberry of Pleasant Hill, CA; her grandchildren Mary Lansberry and Luc Gaston; and the little Yorkshire Terrier, Sheba, she called her "God moment."

A birthday party and celebration of life was held for Dorothy on Oct. 13 in Rio Rico, where her family and friends joined together to wish her peace.

Dorothy didn't like anyone to be hungry. Donations may be made in Dorothy's name to the Nogales Community Food Bank, P.O. Box 3201, Nogales, AZ 85628. Published in Green Valley News & Sun on Nov. 13, 2013
