

The Lounsbury Tree

Family Newsletter #32

Fall 1999

Jim Jurista - Editor

Welcome!

It's hard to believe that another half a year has gone by and it's time for the next issue of the Tree. This is my third issue since taking over from Al Lounsbury, and I have to say that I am thrilled to be doing such rewarding work. The best part is hearing from people all over the USA and Canada that look forward to reading each issue of the Tree.

Some of you may already know that my wife Aimee gave birth to our baby girl, Lydia Koval Jurista, on June 8. Lydia was 20 inches long and weighed six pounds, fifteen ounces. Mom and baby are doing great, and I love being a father. Look for pictures of Lydia elsewhere in this issue.

Many of you also know that I was adopted as an infant, and that my adoptive mother is my Lounsbury (that's our family's spelling) connection. Through the wonder of the Internet, my birth mother recently contacted me and I'm learning all about a whole new family. My family and hers have been very enthusiastic about the whole thing, and she and I are just starting to get to know each other. It promises to be a wild ride.

What a dry summer we had here in the northeastern US! I live in a rural community, and it seems like every cornfield was decimated by the drought. The stalks were brown and shriveled. Local farmers ended up being eligible for federal relief money. There was a small silver lining – our apples were exploding with flavor. Apparently the drought causes the apples to be sweeter and slightly smaller.

I hope that those of you along the Atlantic coast were spared the destruction of Hurricane Floyd. The devastation it caused from Florida to New Jersey was terrible;

On a brighter note, the holidays are around the corner and soon it will be time for a warm fire and a cup of cocoa! I love the cool weather – although I can live without the driving snows of a Syracuse-area winter. I hope the season finds you all safe, happy, and healthy. Keep those great letters coming, and remember that I can always use new material to include in the Tree.

I am seeking information about my Great Grandmother, Edna Viola LOUNSBURY. She was born about 1884 in Schoharie County, NY. Most of what I know about her I learned from my grandmother's birth certificate.

My grandmother, Zelma SMITH, was born October 29, 1905 in Schenectady NY. According to Zelma's birth certificate her mother's maiden name was Edna Viola LOUNSBURY (born in Schoharie County NY), her father's name was Edward E. Smith (born in Greene County NY).

I don't know what happened to Edward Smith, but I know that Edna later married a man named William COUNTRYMAN and they lived in the area of Copake Lake NY.

My greatgreatgrandfather George W. BOSWELL married May LOUNDSBURY ca. 1830 in the District of Columbia. The 1850 census says both were born in D.C. I am not convinced of that but they appear in the 1840 and 1850 censuses as living there and raising a large family, including my greatgrandfather James H. Boswell. I'd like to find out what a LOUNSBURY was doing in D.C. so early, since at that time there were virtually no other persons with that surname in the Chesapeake.

I have a reunion ribbon for a Camp Lounsbury, Aug. 25, 1887. At the top of the ribbon are the dates 1739-1887 followed by a logo with a "C" on top of a "N" on top of a "G" with a "3" intertwined around the middle of the "N". This is followed by "Veteran Association / Camp Lounsbury / Aug. 25, 1887". I'm assuming this is a National Guard unit. Because of the 1739 origin date, I think I can rule out California and Colorado. That leaves Connecticut, but I have yet to find a location with the name "Lounsbury" I suppose it could be Canadian. Can anyone help me identify this piece. Thanks.

Connecticut Ancestry Society, Inc.

The Tree doesn't carry commercial solicitations, but this organization is very worthy of your support. Bob Spiers of the Society is both a dedicated researcher and a good guy; he attended the 1998 International "L" reunion and is a subscriber to this newsletter. Following is a brochure he sent to the Tree; any typographical errors are the result of the transcription.

Connecticut Ancestry Society, Inc.

(Founded 1954, formerly Stamford Genealogical Society, Inc.)

Post Office Box 249; Stamford CT 06904-0249

Organized in 1954 by dedicated individuals concerned with protecting the rich historical resources of Connecticut for future family history researchers, our Society has a long tradition of voluntary service and support. As you trace your roots back to your own immigrant ancestors, it is likely that you will encounter one or more lines that passed through the original colonies of New England.

Founded in 1631 by settlers from Plymouth and Massachusetts Bay Colonies as well as new arrivals, Connecticut was a vital part of the early English settlement of America, as well as the later broad European and Mediterranean migrations at the time of the Potato Famine and the Industrial Revolution.

Much work has been done by our members in compiling their own family and local area information, a significant portion of which has been published. Our meetings are informative and give members an opportunity to share information or to seek leads to that next elusive fact or source that has us stymied. Speakers are chosen for their knowledge of genealogy or local history. And our Queries Column is available for members.

The Society actively interchanges event scheduling information with neighboring historical and genealogical societies.

We invite you to share our resources and welcome your contributions of your own research and information.

The Membership Committee

Objectives

The objectives of the society are to:

1. Locate, acquire, preserve, and index all classes of genealogical records, and make them available to members and the public.
2. Inform and encourage members in the methods and practices of genealogical research and compilation.
3. Elevate and maintain genealogical standards of excellence.

Society Projects

As a service organization, the Society conducts a number of projects. Anyone willing to help with these or other genealogical programs is cordially invited to join. Current projects include:

1. Annual subject and every-name indices for the May issue of Connecticut Ancestry;
2. Computer Interest Group workshops;
3. Consolidating member ancestral charts
4. Indexing genealogical records; and,
5. Registering family associations.

CONNECTICUT ANCESTRY

Connecticut Ancestry is the Society's quarterly journal containing articles of genealogical interest that relate primarily to Connecticut sources. Published since 1958, it is the oldest Connecticut genealogical periodical and is recognized nationally for the quality of its original research. Indexed in the Connecticut Genealogical Periodical Index, and PERSI, Connecticut Ancestry typically publishes more than 150 pages of articles each year, as well as an everyname index.

Regular features in Connecticut Ancestry include a Queries Column, to which members may submit free inquiries; the Computer Interest Group Newsletter; reviews of books and other genealogical materials added to the collections of the Ferguson Library in Stamford or contributed to the Society, a Calendar of Current Events; and a listing of genealogical research materials available to purchase from the Society.

Meetings

The society holds its Annual Meeting in May and other meetings irregularly during the year. A speaker or a panel of experienced genealogists is featured at most meetings, and special interest meetings dealing with computers and Society projects have been held. Meeting dates and places are published in Connecticut Ancestry, with reminder notices sent out to members living in the vicinity of Stamford. All meetings are open to the public.

The Society is on the Steering Committee for the New England Regional Genealogical Conference and actively exchanges data and information with other New England-based societies.

Members May Inspect Connecticut Vital Records

Connecticut law provides that a member in good standing of a genealogy society incorporated in Connecticut is entitled to inspect the original vital records held by any town, city, or state registrar of vital statistics. The membership card furnished by the Society identifies you as a qualified researcher under that law.

Stamford Room, Ferguson Library

From its inception our Society has enjoyed a close working relationship with the Ferguson Public Library in Stamford, which already owned a wide collection of primary and secondary source materials on New England. Over the years the Society has contributed books, microfilm, and original materials to the library, including pedigree charts for its members, and copies of the more than 50 genealogical periodicals from around the country with whom we make exchanges.

In 1986 the Ferguson Library created the Stamford Room, a separate genealogy and local history section to house its collection of thousands of books, periodicals, and other related materials. Bright and spacious and located on its own partial floor, the Stamford Room provides an outstanding and comfortable work area reserved exclusively for serious research. All books in this room are held on Reference Reserve and do not circulate. Coin-operated copy machines are located on each floor, and coin-operated microform reader/printers are provided. (Copies are currently 10 cents -- bring dimes.)

The library's holdings also include major microfiche and microfilm sets, such as the Barbour Index, the 1988 International Genealogical Index (IGI) for the United States, Canada, British Isles, and Central Europe (primarily Germany) and the Torrey Index of the Connecticut military and census records, among others. Located at 96 Broad Street in the middle of downtown Stamford, Ferguson Library is open 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Monday - Thursday, 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Saturday, and 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Sundays (closed Sundays from May 16 to Sept 13 and all Holidays).

Donations

The Society welcomes donations of genealogical or local history books and materials, periodicals, manuscripts, diaries, charts, family Bible records, etc., and especially articles for our journal. The Society is qualified as a tax exempt charitable and educational organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions are deductible to the extent permitted by law.

Reunion Information

The following letter comes to the Tree from Golda Lounsbury of Harrow, Ontario, Canada:

We are celebrating our 12th annual Lounsbury reunion this July 3rd, 1999.

We are the children of Lorne Lounsbury & Eva Simmons - Both deceased. We gather each July at Wheatley Provincial Park in Wheatley Ont. Canada. It is wonderful to see the cousins greet each other some of which (when they can) come from Fredonia, New York U.S.A.; West Virginia, U.S.A.; Ottawa Canada, & as far west as Alberta Canada.

We come together each July and enjoy it so much. This year we have a cookbook available as our family group has many excellent cooks.

If you would like more information about this reunion or are a part of this line, you can contact Golda or Laurence (Pat) Lounsbury at:
