Lounsbury Lingo

You will notice a wide variety of surname spellings associated with the Lounsbury Tree. The most common spelling is “Lounsbury” though “Lounsberry” and “Lounsbery” are also prevalent. In 99% of researched cases, Canadians and Americans with these surname spellings are linked by common ancestors: Richard Lounsbury and Elizabeth (Pennoyer) Lounsbury of what is now Rye, NY, who were married there in 1670. There are many other surname variations who fit our extended family tree, including Lansbury (though apparently not the famous actress Angela Lansbury), Lainspeary, and Lonsberry.

For simplicity, we use the letter “L” to denote the surname regardless of its spelling. Hence the phrasing “L” Tree at the top of this page.

The Anderson House, Newcastle, New Brunswick, Canada - Standing Tall and Proud

The story of the house begins in the last century. Donald Morrison, who was married to Jane Fish, had the house built in the 1880’s. Its architecture, with the mansard roof is very similar to the Old Manse Library and the W. S. Loggie house in Chatham.

In 1897 the Pleasant Street house was sold to George A. Lounsbury. George Lounsbury was married to AnnieClark and he worked with his brother-in-law George N. Clark in the firm established in 1878 on the Newcastle Wharf. This is the Lounsbury Company that now has 13 branches.

George and Annie Lounsbury had a daughter Maude and a son G. Hollie. Maude married Herb McDonald in Chatham and their children, Jack McDonald and Jean (McDonald) Burchill are grandchildren of G. A. Lounsbury.

The Lounsbury Company built a new brick store on the square in 1901 which burned in 1935. The present store was built on the same site that summer.

It was during the residency of the Lounsbury family in the house that the street on the west was given the name Lounsbury Street.

George Lounsbury died in 1902, at the age of 46. The next year his widow sold the house to Rachel (Sinclair) Fish, wife of James O. Fish and moved to Fredericton to reside.

FOSTER - LOUNSBERY Wedding Today - New York Times 5 Oct 1918

The wedding of Miss Marion Lounsbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dean Lounsbury of 685 West End Avenue, and Lieutenant William J. Foster, U.S.A., whose engagement was announced last December, will take place this afternoon at 4 o’clock, at the Church of the Heavenly Rest. The plans were arranged hastily for the marriage, and only the immediate families and a few friends will attend.

New York Times 1 Oct 1902. Editor’s Note: Does anyone know who these Lounsburys are, other than she appears to be the daughter of the persons immediately below?

LOUNSBERY – JUDD NYC 5 Nov 1896

The wedding of Miss Sarah Gregory Judd to Herbert Dean Lounsbury was celebrated at 12:30 yesterday afternoon by Chancellor Day of the Syracuse University at the home of the bride’s widowed mother, Mrs. J. G. Judd, 132 East Nineteenth St. The maid of honor was Miss Laura Judd, the best man was Oscar C. Risch, and John Mason and F. Mason of Boston were the ushers. The bride was attired in a going away gown. The small reception that followed was attended only by the relatives of the contracting parties, as the family of the bride is in mourning. On their return from their wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Lounsbury will live in West Sixty-eighth Street.

LOUNSBERY – TAIT; Special to the New York Times
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept 30. - The wedding of the Rev. Lewis Marshall Lounsbury, pastor of the Methodist Church of New Canaan, to Miss Mary F. Tait attracted local society in large numbers to the Olivet Congregational Church this evening, where the couple were united in marriage by the Rev. George R. Montgomery. The bride is the oldest daughter of William F. Tait, a paper manufacturer, and she has been prominent in musical and society circles. The bridegroom was formerly pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church of this city. A brilliant reception followed the church ceremony at the home of the bride’s parents.

MURRAY – LOUNSBERY - New York Times, 17 Sep 1897
Sing Sing, N.Y., Sept. 16 - Miss Phoebe Lounsberry, daughter of the late Jesse Lounsberry, was married this evening to Edwin D. Murray. Both are residents of this village. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mrs. Barney Foshay, 74 South Highland Avenue. Editor’s Note: Does anyone know who these Lounsburys are?

LOUNSBERY – CRISTY
Newspapers of the 29th of June, 1964 contain a story of the wedding of Alvin Lownsbury, 31, and Patricia Christy, 22, in a small plane over a mile high over Canton, Ohio. The couple then sky-dived to their reception below. Editor’s Note: Does anyone know who these Lownsburys are? Let us hope that everything wasn’t downhill thereafter.

Gerald Robert Lounsbury Jr.

Gerald Robert Lounsbury Jr., 76, of Mountain Home, passed away due to lung cancer Tuesday, Aug. 15, 2006, at a local care center.
Gerald was born Dec. 18, 1929, the son of Gerald and Millie Lounsbury Sr., in American Falls. Later, his family moved to the Ketchum area, and he lived there for many years before going into the Air Force. Gerald was in the Air Force for 23 years; three of them were overseas in the intelligence field and in firefighting.

Gerald spent most of the rest of his life doing what he loved most, running his deep sea fishing boat, the “Echo,” in the Florida Keys.

When he moved to Mountain Home, he spent most of his time fishing and traveling in his motor home from Galena Summit (his favorite Idaho place) to the Florida panhandle.

Gerald is survived by his daughter, Christine Owens of Coeur d’Alene; a daughter, Cindy Ward of Oregon; a son, Jerry Ward of Texas; a son, Charlie Majone of Oregon; a sister, Patricia Smith of Mountain Home; 10 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by both parents.

Arrangements are under the direction of Rost Funeral Home, McMurtrey Chapel in Mountain Home.

Apartments for Servicemen
By Tim Rowan, Staff Writer
The Stars and Stripes, Monday, February 13, 1956

The 50-year-old widow of a former University of Maryland history professor is going into the apartment business in Frankfurt to provide “reasonably priced” flats to almost a score of married servicemen not authorized Army housing.

Margaret C. Lounsbury, of Washington, D.C., plans to open her five-story eighteen-apartment project “the first of May.” Located at 21 Broenner Str. in downtown Frankfurt, the pocket-size apartments will rent for from 280 to 295 marks ($65 to $70) a month “according to size.”

“The apartments will be strictly for married service families – privates and corporals who are not given family housing in Germany,” the energetic mother of two married daughters said. Only requirement for getting an apartment will be the wife’s passport, Mrs. Lounsbury said.

Plans for running an apartment house have been under way ever since her husband Ralph G. Lounsbury was fatally stricken with a heart attack late last spring.

“The idea occurred to me, what to Do?” she said. “I thought if I could get hold of a building, I could support myself and have a place to live.”

As planned the apartments will consist of a large bedroom-sitting room, a small kitchen and a bath or shower. Electricity will be extra, but all flats will be furnished. Though the apartment house actually has twenty apartments, Mrs Lounsbury will save two for occupancy by herself.

Notion of renting the apartment building especially for servicemen occurred to Mrs. Lounsbury after her twenty-one year old daughter Carolyn was married to Cpl. Joseph Kelso of Stuttgart, Germany, and the newlyweds found adequate housing difficult to find. Her second daughter, Cecilla Melville, 25, is married to an American civilian employed with EES in Nurnberg, Germany.

After agreeable – through fruitless – negotiations with the U.S. Army and the German government to obtain a building Mrs. Lounsbury met with Persian builder Ali Selmi and contracted to rent his new structure still under construction.

“What with advance rent and providing furniture and furnishings this is costing me around $20,000,” Mrs. Lounsbury said. “The money is mine plus some I had borrowed. Naturally, I didn’t do this without advice and help. I had American attorney Thomas C. Lancian, former HICOG prosecutor, doing all my legal work for me.”

Transactions involved in becoming a business woman on the German economy “would fill a book” Mrs Lounsbury said. Though this is her first big venture, Mrs. Lounsbury explained that she is a graduate of the Lewis Hotel School of Washington, D.C., and was a zone manager in the Frankfurt Army billeting office during 1952-53. She had charge of 1,100 Army dwellings and several hundred domestic personnel.

Preventing her from opening the apartment house before mid-spring is the present winter weather, Mrs. Lounsbury explained.

“The building is just a shell. Pipes and wiring have gone in, but the cold is holding up plastering. After the plaster, you have to wait six weeks to put in wall paper.”

Send us the news, birth, deaths reunions, family events, histories, etc.
Dear Ancestor

Your tombstone stands among the rest, neglected and alone.

The name and date are chiseled out on polished, marbled stone.
It reaches out to all who care
it is too late to mourn.
You did not know that I exist.
You died and I was born.
Yet each of us are cells of you in flesh
in blood, in bone.
Our blood contracts and beats a pulse entirely not our own.

Dear Ancestor,
the place you filled
one hundred years ago
Spreads out among the ones who would have loved you so.
I wonder if you knew That someday
I would find this spot,
and come to visit you.
